

NEW LEADERSHIP BOARD MEMBERSHIP PROFILE

The New Leadership Board was formed by the Pittsburgh Symphony Society (now Pittsburgh Symphony, Inc.) in 1990 to assist in educating and attracting a younger audience for the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra (PSO). Aligned with the PSO's overall strategic plan, today the New Leadership Board identifies and engages new and prospective PSO subscriber audiences, cultivates committed individuals for membership, and serves the PSO through ongoing advocacy. Supporting this mission are the group's four core values: advocacy, innovation and creativity, mentoring, and exemplifying ideal patronage.

Membership in the New Leadership Board includes the following commitments:

- Attendance at 75% of the organization's meetings
- Payment of the annual membership fee of $50, which covers various overhead expenses related to the program
- Purchase of a subscription to a PSO series of any type
- A contribution of any size to the PSO's Annual Fund campaign

As a member of the New Leadership Board and as either a representative of my employer or as a trustee of my community, I will be committed to the time and financial requirements of the program and to supporting the Pittsburgh Symphony. I understand the importance of this commitment and will fully participate in the activities of the organization.
